- Crochet hook: Size H (5mm)
- Yarn needle

- Scissors

Skill Level

Suitable for intermediate crocheters with basic knowledge of granny squares and joining techniques.

Pattern Instructions

Heart Motif

1. Chain 4, join with a slip stitch to form a ring.
2. Round 1: 3 single crochet (sc) in the ring, chain 2, 3 sc in the ring, chain 2, repeat twice more around - 12 sc.
3. Round 2: 2 sc in each sc around - 24 sc.
4. Round 3: *2 sc, chain 2, 2 sc* in each sc around - 36 sc.
5. Round 4: *1 sc, chain 2, 1 sc* in each sc around - 24 sc.
6. Round 5: *1 sc, chain 2, 1 sc, chain 2, 1 sc* in each sc around - 36 sc.
7. Fasten off and leave a long tail for sewing.

Afghan Assembly

1. Create a desired number of heart motifs (approximately 40-50 for a medium-sized afghan).
2. Lay out the motifs on a flat surface to plan the desired arrangement of colors and patterns.
3. Using a yarn needle and the long tails left from the heart motifs, sew the motifs together side by side, row by row.

4. Continue sewing until all motifs are joined to form the afghan.
5. Weave in any loose ends.

Yarn Recommendations

To create a vibrant and textured afghan, experiment with different yarn types and weights. Consider using:

- Acrylic yarn for durability and easy care
- Wool yarn for warmth and a cozy feel
- Cotton yarn for breathability and a crisp texture
- Variegated yarn for subtle color transitions
- Textured yarn for added visual interest

Color Palette Inspiration

The beauty of the Scrap Hearts Afghan lies in its endless possibilities for color combinations. Draw inspiration from:

- Nature's vibrant hues (e.g., blooming flowers, autumn foliage)
- Artistic color wheels and palettes
- Personal preferences and emotions
- Seasonal themes (e.g., pastel hearts for spring, rich tones for fall)

Visual Journey

Immerse yourself in the vibrant tapestry of heart motifs, each a testament to the intricate artistry of crochet.
