

Fallen Star Collection Rises For 20th Anniversary, Waking Up To Ebook Of Photo

The Fallen Star Collection, a series of black-and-white photographs taken by artist Jane Doe, is celebrating its 20th anniversary with the release of an ebook. The ebook, which is available for purchase on Amazon, features high-resolution scans of the original photographs, as well as an essay by the artist about the inspiration behind the collection.

The Fallen Star Collection was first exhibited in 2003 at the Museum of Modern Art in New York City. The photographs in the collection depict stars that have fallen from the sky and landed on the earth. The stars are shown in various states of decay, from freshly fallen to completely disintegrated.
