Synopsis

The Letter: Black Cat Vol 24 - Salem, Massachusetts Mini Mystery is a thrilling mystery novel that takes place in the historic town of Salem, Massachusetts. The story follows a young woman named Sarah as she investigates the mysterious disappearance of her sister. Along the way, she uncovers a dark secret that has haunted Salem for centuries.

Sarah has always been fascinated by the history of Salem, especially the witch trials that took place in the 17th century. When her sister, Emily, disappears without a trace, Sarah begins to suspect that something sinister is at play. She soon discovers that Emily was investigating a local legend about a black cat that is said to haunt the town.

As Sarah delves deeper into the mystery, she uncovers a dark secret that has been hidden for centuries. She learns that the black cat is connected to a powerful witch who was executed during the witch trials. The witch's curse has haunted Salem ever since, and it is now up to Sarah to break the curse and save her sister.
